

Report on Sea Units Prepared

County supervisors have authorized printing of 600 copies of a report dealing with reclamation of wastewater for supplying injection wells as part of the sea barrier program, Chairman Burton W. Chace said today.

The action was recommended by County Flood Control District Chief Engineer Walter J. Wood, whose agency prepared the report.

Chace said the document summarizes findings from a series of tests performed on effluent at Los Angeles City's Hyperion Treatment Plant near El Segundo.

THE TESTS were conducted by the District with the help of Cal Tech scientists, the City's Bureau of Sanitation, and various equipment and material suppliers.

Cost of the tests was underwritten from the District's general and Zone II funds in addition to a research grant to Cal Tech from the U. S. Public Health Service, Chace said.

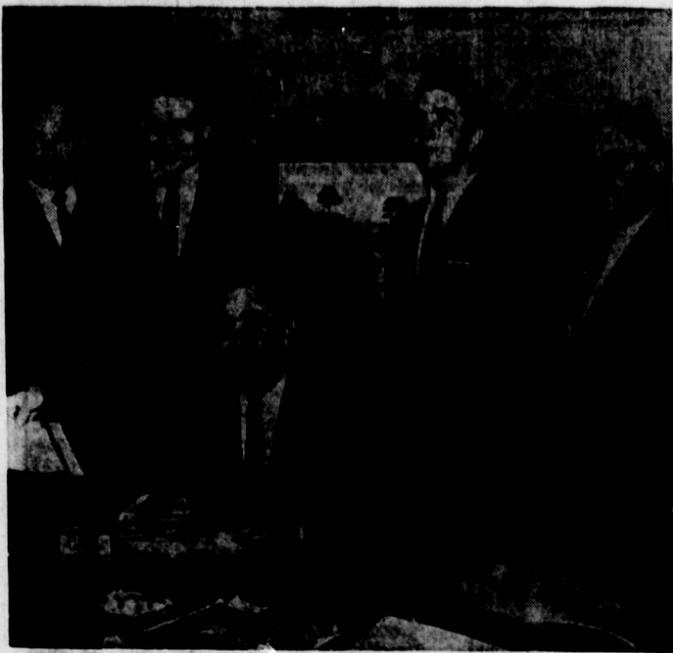

Army Pvt. Danny E. Yeats, 18, son of Mrs. Jewell Watson of Lynwood, was chosen as his basic combat training company's outstanding trainee Nov. 4 at Ft. Ord.

Yeats was selected by his instructors for demonstrating exceptional ability and initiative in classroom and field instruction throughout his eight weeks of training.

His father, Eugene E. Yeats, lives at 20809 Orchard Ave.

THE DISTRICT was authorized to distribute the reports without charge to governmental agencies and other organizations that cooperated in the test. Copies will be sold to other interested parties at a cost of $2.50 each.

Cost of producing the 600 copies has been estimated at $1,500, Chace said.

Youth Band Faces Busy Schedule

A special series of holiday concerts by the Torrance Area Youth Bands, Inc., has been scheduled in the area, according to Mrs. LaRue Braswell, newly elected president of the group.

The Junior Youth Band is scheduled to march Saturday in the annual Huntington Park Christmas Lane Parade. The parade will be telecast on Channel 5 from 7 until 9 p.m., Mrs. Braswell said.

The Senior Youth Band will appear in concert Saturday, Dec. 10. The first of two concerts is scheduled on the mall at the Del Amo Shopping Center.

The junior band also is scheduled to participate Dec. 20 in welcoming ceremonies for the USS Manatee's return to Long Beach. The Manatee has been on a duty cruise in Vietnamese waters.
